

Samwaad

Aims and scope of the journal

Samwaad –e-Journal is a biannual, Bilingual journal dedicated to publishing high-quality papers that describe the most significant and cutting-edge research in all areas of Education. As well as reflecting the traditional core subjects of other cross-disciplinary topics such as Humanities, science, management and law are also being featured. The submission of manuscripts detailing multidisciplinary research performed at the interface of education.

In addition to primary research, Samwaad –e-Journal also publishes review articles, news and views, research highlights about important work reported in other journals, commentaries, book reviews, correspondence, and analysis of the broader educational picture beyond the classroom — including issues such as special education, funding, policy, intellectual property, and the impact education has on society. In this way, the journal aims to be the voice of the worldwide educational community.

Samwaad is committed to publishing top-tier original research in all areas of education through a fair and rigorous review process. It offers authors high visibility for their papers, access to a broad readership, high standards of copy editing and production, rapid publication and independence from academic societies and others with vested interests. Samwaad is promoting dialogue in educational arena to help academicians, researchers and learners.